ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Praise be to Allah SWT who has given us His innumerable blessings and great mercies so that this thesis has come to completion. This part is presented to thank all those who have helped and supported me in completing this thesis. This appreciation may never be equal to their help and support.

The deepest appreciation and gratitude to my supervisor, Dra. R.A.J. Atrinawati, M.Hum, who has provided motivation, knowledge, criticism and guidance until the researcher can complete the final thesis; are extended to this thesis, which is intended to complete a partial requirement for the award of an Undergraduate degree in the English Departement without which I would be doubtful to accomplish this thesis.

My greatest thanks also go to the following:

1. Prof. Dr. Alamsyah, S.S., M.Hum, as the Dean of the Faculty of Humanities, Diponegoro University;
2. Dr. Retno Wulandari S.S., M.A., as the Head of the English Department of the Faculty of Humanities, Diponegoro University;
3. All the lecturers of the English Department of Diponegoro University who have shared their precious knowledge and their advice are remarkable.
4. My parents and sister, who have been the biggest supporters and motivations to finish my education;
5. My grandmother, who gave countless prayers and support;

6. My dearest best friends, thank you for your countless prayers and support.

This thesis is certainly still in need of improvement, as I realize that it is far from being perfect. Therefore, any kind of suggestion or constructive criticism would always be very welcome and appreciated. I hope that this thesis will be helpful to those who want to learn more about motherhood struggles and maternal guilt, or any other related field in general.
