ABSTRACT

Economic development in Indonesia is an important agenda for every country. SME sector is always described as having a very important role, because SMEs can absorb workers with low education and living in a small business activities, both traditional and modern . The majority of SMEs is the lack of capital ownership, which micro-entrepreneurs do not have sufficient working capital to develop the business .

Methods of this study using a descriptive method to determine the system of collection, management and empowerment at the Rumah Zakat zakat funds Semarang. To analyze the effect of the zakat fund productive capital , turnover and profit / income from operations used different test methods (Paired T -test) . Objects in this study are given mustahik capital assistance by the Zakat by 30 respondents .

From the research results show that Independent Smile program is a program of the venture capital assistance grants or qardhul hasan method . Different test analysis results indicate that the influence of oemberian capital assistance to the development of capital , turnover and profit before and after receiving venture capital assistance .

Keywords: Micro Enterprises, Rumah Zakat ,productive zakat ,business capital, Sales Turnover, profit

SEMARANG

FEB UNDIP