

CHAPTER 4

Conclusion

In conclusion, it can be concluded that Donald Glover are reflecting in the lyrics and the music video that the Afro-American people how they are living inconstant turmoil and get racial discriminated in their live living in the America by showing how they act in violence, how the the media have a significant effect to control whatever happen to the Afro-Americans by hiding the truth and divert them to other things.

The writer also found different act and result based on how the discrimination is displayed in the video and the lyric. To start firstly the action or pose that done by the singer in the movie resembling a certain act dated back when the afro-american are still oppressed by the rule. The next point, the discrimination displayed are in form of racial distraction and ignorance. One of the proofs is when the singer dancing from the start until the end of the video while in the back there are many chaotic events that happen at the same time and in the song mentioned that the tool to control. The discrimination also happened such as in media. Such as how the media controlled the factual event regarding the discrimination to the afro-american are easily disguised with another event to cover up the discrimination. The act of violence towards the afro-american are severe compared to other race. such as the shooting victims frequently from the afro-americans. Some of the lyrics in the song also tell on how the discrimination is voiced as the representation on how the act happened.

Lastly the writer find that discrimination can be done directly or indirectly depending on how the intention. Direct discrimination mostly can be identified easily rather than discreet discrimination because it was showed differently as in hidden.
