

CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION

4.1 Conclusion

After analyzing closely, Maverick as the main character has major spirits of American dream such as hard-working and individualism which is combined with braveness, out of the box, and never give up. Those spirits are used by Maverick to achieve the American dream. Maverick is a hard-worker man which will do everything to complete the mission he is given. He also has a never give up spirit to help him to do the job he has. When he fails on something, he never quits but still tries and does many new things he never does before to achieve the dream. Maverick often thinks out of the box in the way he reaches the American dream. It may give him a dangerous choice to choose. Sometimes it makes him difficult when taking it. However, Maverick also has an individualism side. He often does anything without considering the effect of it for him or for other people. In addition of individualism side of Maverick, he also has a spirit of braveness. He is reckless for few times because the determination he has to achieve the American dream.

After analyzing the intrinsic and extrinsic aspects of Top Gun: Maverick, the writer concludes that Maverick is a hard-worker, brave, and out of the box. Maverick is a hard-worker man. It can be looked when he has a dream or a mission to complete, he does everything he can to achieve and complete it. Maverick is recognized as one of the bravest pilots in the world. He does not afraid of everything. He will do dangerous thing if necessary. Maverick is also an out of the box man. The way he solves the problems sometimes makes people worry about him. Maverick is known as a never give up man. When he cannot complete his missions or achieve his dreams, he still tries until he finds the way to complete and achieve it.

The writer concludes that Maverick has the characteristics of the American dream. They are wants to be recognized for his ability and he wants to be a better person. Maverick wants to be recognized for his ability is shown when he and Rooster have to fly back to home but they have no aircraft. Maverick finds out that there is an old F-14 and tries to fly it with his skills and experiences with that aircraft although Rooster is doubt in the first place. Maverick wants to be a better person is shown when he creates a new strategy for the mission. He wants to lowering the mission limit to be fly and destroy the target without being caught by enemy. He does this to avoid any victims in the mission once again.