Dear Razali Ismail,

Thank you for your excellent contribution to Journal of Computational and Theoretical Nanoscience.

Attached is the typeset chapter which you submitted to American Scientific Publishers.

Please answer all queries if there are any attached.

Please review carefully and reply all back in 48 hours with corrections you may need. If there are no correction please also reply back saying so. You may submit corrections via e-mail. We wish that you reply to both aspsupport@covad.net and angpub@covad.net to ensure delivery.

Offprint ORDER FORMS is also attached here.

If you decide to order offprint please return all ORDER FORMS to order@aspbs.com.

If you have difficulties sending email to angpub@covad.net and aspsupport@covad.net please send your mail to 4aspsupport@gmail.com. Also send any bounced email or MailerDaemons there as well.

If your corrections are not received within 48 hours from now then your research article will be published as such.

Dear Dr. Ismail,

You provided a new manuscript without highlighting the corrections. We found lot of corrections when we compare both files. Please suggest whether we should reprocess the new disk or do we just do the highlighted?

Regards,
David
