Recent development

Scope of the Journal

The Editorial Board recognises the importance of continuous improvement. Reflection and re-evaluation are integral to the on-going quality control process. From the outset there has been an awareness of the contribution that can be made by various stakeholders including reviewers, academics, and of course those who read and make use of the Journal itself. Therefore, we have recently narrowed the scope of the Journal to have major focus on Retail Business Management. Our goal is to foster and promote innovative thinking in retailing and associated business practice. Hence, research on retailing and International Retail Business Management remain universal interest. The Journal strives to be a means by which scholars and retail business experts disseminate their research. Although the primary focus of the journal is concerned with retail and retail business management, it also interested in aspects that relate to retail such as HRM, Corporate governance, corporate social responsibilities and stakeholder engagement. Please visit for further details on current scope of the Journal and subject coverage: www.jbrmr.com
