

ABSTRACT

Rembang District has potential aspect occurs in syari'ah microfinance and capture fishing. The exist potencies slowed down by some problems as infrastructure problem, human power problem, the unqualify market and the unsupporting regulation which is not combining about syari'ah microfinance and fisher as the main role of capture fishing sector.

The purpose of this research is to analyze the proper strategies through syari'ah microfinance in Rembang District. This research using Analytical Network Process (ANP) as a method. Mentioned method involving point of view of experties to determine strategy priority to be implemented.

The result of ANP analysis showing that all four aspects of developoment capture fishing thorough syari'ah microfinance in Rembang District Central Java lead to infrastucture aspect as the main priority and advancing microfinance capital atrativeness to fisher with enhancement and placing closer service infrastructure as the right strategy to be implemented for developing capture fishing sector throught syari'ah microfinance in Rembang District.

Keyword: Capture fishing development, ANP (Analytical Network Process), syari'ah microfinance, priority strategy.