ABSTRACT

The aim of this research is to investigate relevancy between profesionalism and social worker's sertification in Indonesia at social ministry especially at Pusat Pembinaan Jabatan Fungsional Pekerja Sosial dan Penyuluh Sosial and Balai Besar Rehabilitasi Sosial Bina Grahita Kartini Temanggung. This research need to be barried by dimensions of profesionalism by Hall. R (1968) and Maister (1998). In order to get depht information about relevancy between profesionalism and social worker's sertification in Indonesia, there are five dimensions of profesionalism by Hall. R and four dimensions by Maister that used in this research.

The objects of this study are the employees at Pusat Pembinaan Jabatan Fungsional Pekerja Sosial dan Penyuluh Sosial and Balai Besar Rehabilitasi Sosial Bina Grahita Kartini Temanggung which consist of manager, Social worker and client.

The result of this research shows there are relevancy between profesionalism and social worker's sertification in Indonesia include some dimensions about dedication, Social obligation, Autonomy demands, belief in self-regulation, Professional community affiliation, pride in the job, commitment to quality, dedication to the interest of the client, and sincere desire to help.

Keywords: profesionalism, social workers, sertification

SEMARANG

FEB UNDIP