

ABSTRACT

The study title is The Role of Community Library “Sahabat Tenggara” Semarang as a learning tool for children in the Tenggara Village, Gayamsari District, Semarang City. The purpose of this study the role of Community Library “Sahabat Tenggara” Semarang as a learning tool for children in Tenggara Village, Gayamsari District, Semarang City. This research use qualitatif reseach design and descriptive reseach type. Informants in this study were the foundes Community Library “Sahabat Tenggara” Semarang and five visit library. Data collection technique use were interviews, observation, and study document with data analysis technique using model of Miles and Huberman that includes data reduction, data presentation, and conclusions/verification. The result this study, the Community Library Sahabat Tenggara Semarang took a role in the field of learning. Learning activities carried out by the Community Library “Sahabat Tenggara” Semarang are places for learning. From children where many activities that are beneficalto children arround the library are needed. In terms of the role helping children to get access to learning facilities better by providing various types of reading books such as comics, short stories, ensiklopedia, and others, educating including showing films and educational tours one of which is being screened to fire fighter, and developing such as performances, making crafts from recycling waste.

Keyword : role; “sahabat tenggang” community library; learning tool.