

ABSTRACT

The library of AKKES Asih Husada was purposed to provide information for all academic community especially for the students of AKKES Asih Husada. This research was aimed to find a picture related to student's motivation as they visited the library. This research used qualitative method by interviewing AKKES Asih Husada's students as an informant. Based on the result of this research, it can be concluded that Internal motive of the students when they visited the library was to fulfill their needed of information, and their will to gathered with their friends. While the external motivation of the Asih Husada AKKES students when visited the library was to utilize the supporting facilities in the library such as a comfortable room to gathered when they have free time, as well as wi-fi facilities that they used to find information or to accessed internet.

Key Word : Library of AKKES Asih Husada, motivation, library visit

