

Stereotype of Masculinity and Its Effect on Recruitment and Exploitation of CAAFAG in the DR Congo

Skripsi

Disusun untuk memenuhi persyaratan menyelesaikan

Pendidikan Strata 1

Departemen Hubungan Internasional Fakultas Ilmu Sosial dan Ilmu Politik Universitas Diponegoro

Penyusun

Nama: Khairunnisa Andini Damayanti

NIM : 14050117130028

DEPARTEMEN HUBUNGAN INTERNASIONAL
FAKULTAS ILMU SOSIAL DAN ILMU POLITIK
UNIVERSITAS DIPONEGORO
SEMARANG

2021

HALAMAN PENGESAHAN

Judul Skripsi : Toxic Culture of Masculinity and Its Effect on Recruitment and Exploitation of CAAFAG in the DR
Congo

Nama Penyusun : Khairunnisa Andini Damayanti 14050117130028

Departemen : Hubungan Internasional

Dinyatakan sah sebagai salah satu syarat untuk menyelesaikan pendidikan
Strata 1

Semarang, 9 Februari 2021

Dekan

Wakil Dekan I

Dr. Drs. Hardi Warsono, MTP.
NIP. 19649827 199001 1 001

Dr. Drs. Teguh Yuwono, M.Pol., Admin
NIP. 19690822 199403 1 003

Dosen Pembimbing :

1. Dr. Dra. Reni Windiani, MS.

2. Satwika Paramasatya, S.I.P., MA

Dosen Penguji Skripsi :

1. Shary Charlotte Henriette Pattipeilhy, S.IP., M.A.

MOTTO

Yesterday is heavy, so put it down

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In the name of the God Almighty, this undergraduate thesis entitled “Stereotype of Masculinity and Its Effect on Recruitment and Exploitation of CAAFAG in the DR Congo” is finally completed. This undergraduate thesis is written in order to meet the requirements needed to obtain a Bachelor degree of International Relations of the Faculty of Social and Political Sciences of Universitas Diponegoro. Throughout the research and writing process of this undergraduate thesis, I have received a lot of support and assistance. I would very much like to thank the following:

1. The God Almighty, for God’s will and blessings had guided me through the whole process of writing this undergraduate thesis.
2. My grandmothers; Ms. Marini Wedyanti and Ms. Sрни Tjondronegoro, the ones whose love and support matter the most. Thank you for always putting your faith in me, for cherishing and supporting me. I definitely would not become the person I am without your guidance and blessings.
3. My parents, Mr. Adi Siswandoko and Ms. Dessy Nugrahati, as well as my sister, Rashida Indira, for the support and blessings that have helped me finish my studies and finish this undergraduate thesis.
4. Moca, Kitty, Jiko, Kucil, Puring, Fuhren, Bru, Milo, Coco, Bailey, Sky, Gandi, Olaf, and Darkly; my feline sweethearts whose mere existence have helped me to survive during the darkest of times. Thank you for making every day more bearable.
5. Head of Department of International Relations and Supervisor I, Ms. Dr. Dra. Reni Windiani, M.S., for the support, guidance, and constructive criticism which have helped me in writing this undergraduate thesis.
6. Supervisor II, Mr. Satwika Paramasatya, S.IP., M.A., whose endless support, guidance, constructive criticism, and advice have helped me in writing this undergraduate thesis. Thank you for ensuring me that everything will eventually get better, that I am worthy and enough, that my feelings are valid. Thank you for always reminding me that somewhere out there, one day, there will be people who will appreciate and accept me the way I am.

7. Ms. Rr. Hermi Susiatiningsih, M.Si., for the guidance, support, knowledge, and skills which were taught during the time of my experience being one of her Assistant Lecturers/Junior Researchers. I would never be the person I am right now without your guidance and help.
8. All lecturers of the Department of International Relations, whose knowledge and experience have been shared and taught throughout the whole semesters I spent as a student.
9. Ms. Sylvie Bodineau, who has kindly helped me doing research by providing me with her dissertation for further reference on the experiences of CAAFAG.
10. Mr. Michel Chikwanine, who has willingly made time to be interviewed regarding the matter of CAAFAG in the DR Congo. Through our interview, you did not only provide me with a better understanding of the situation, but you also taught me how to be resilient, embrace your traumas, and live with them.
11. Ms. Kate Geraghty, for allowing me to use the pictures taken by her in this thesis. The pictures really helped me to better describe and explain the atrocities experienced by the CAAFAG in the DRC.
12. All members and presidium of MAFINDO and the Fact-checking Division, as well as my fellow Junior Fact Checker colleagues, thank you for the opportunity that had been given and the knowledge that had been taught during the internship program.
13. ‘Anak Bunda’; Safriska Desna, Ellya Rizky, Anissa Rosalin, and Luthfi Marissa, my fellow Assistant Lecturers/Junior Researchers of Ms. Hermi. Thank you for the support, motivation, and assistance which have helped me to divide my time in completing my academic assignments, my undergraduate thesis, my internship assignments, as well as the assignments as an Assistant Lecturer/Junior Researcher. I would never finish the assignments on time if it was not because of your help.

14. 'Padepokan Mas Satya'; Misliharira Shaumi, Vira Namira, Rahma Anindita, Athufail Araafi, Thomas Adit, and Bhirawa Anoraga, my colleagues under the guidance of Mr. Satwika since the period of research proposal. Thank you for the constructive criticisms and the assistance throughout the whole process of writing this undergraduate thesis.
15. Augie Khansa and Evarizma Zahra, my anchors, the ones who constantly remind me that it is fine to not feel fine. The ones who always act unapologetically true. The love for you two goes almost beyond all the books and animals in this world.
16. Nadine Salsabila and Sinung Wikunto, will forever owe you two for the ability to finish this undergraduate thesis. Thank you for your willingness to proofread the drafts every time before I submit them to the supervisors. Thank you for always willing to engage in discussions and give me stimulating insights that never fail to motivate me to finish this undergraduate thesis.
17. My high school mates, Rifki Taufik and Devi Rachmasari, the only ones who have seen me at my worst, during my lowest points, and still opted to stay. Thank you very much.
18. Adinda Budi; my life-long friend. Thank you for being the ultimate support system, for being a part of my life for as long as I could remember.
19. All of my fellow Class of 2017, especially Medina Azahara, Najla Nadira, Steven Theonald, Tsania Chairani, Alex Haekal, Rizky Misgi, Victoria Amandani, Safrida Alivia, Indhi Vanya, Andrea Satria, Aswin Priyo, Argayoga Laksana, Vandita Oktavia, Nadasyifa Vraba, and Eqqi Syahputra. Thank you for making college fun since day one, for turning me into a more open and social person, for all the laughter and tears during the highest ups and the lowest downs.

20. Khanid Rachmadia and Maria Oktavia, thank you for being great colleagues, friends, and sisters. Your hardwork and dedication never fail to motivate me to do better.

I am very much aware that this undergraduate thesis is nowhere near perfect. Therefore, every constructive criticism will be extremely appreciated. I sincerely hope this undergraduate thesis could provide new perspectives to understand the issue of recruitment and exploitation of CAAFAG, so that we could work on solutions to eradicate them.

Semarang, February 2021

Khairunnisa Andini

TABLE OF CONTENTS

FRONT COVER PAGE	i
APPROVAL PAGE	ii
MOTTO	iii
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT	iv
TABLE OF CONTENTS	viii
LIST OF PICTURES	x
LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS	xi
LIST OF ATTACHMENTS	xii
ABSTRACT	xiii
CHAPTER I
INTRODUCTION	1
1.1 Background	1
1.2 Statement of Problem	6
1.3 Purpose Statement	6
1.4 Significance of Research	7
1.5 Theoretical Framework	7
1.6 Hypothesis.....	13
1.7 Research Method.....	14
CHAPTER II
ARMED CONFLICTS, RECRUITMENT, AND EXPLOITATION OF CAAFAD IN THE DR CONGO	18
2.1 Armed Conflicts in the DR Congo.....	18
2.2 Recruitment and Exploitation of CAAFAG.....	21
2.3 Toxic Culture of Masculinity in the DRC.....	24
2.4 Michel Chikwanine: Story of A Former CAAFAG in the DRC.....	27

CHAPTER III

THE EFFECT OF TOXIC CULTURE OF MASCULINITY

ON RECRUITMENT AND EXPLOITATION OF CAAFAG..... 32

3.1 The Effect of Recruitment and Exploitation of CAAFAG

 on Congolese Children’s Personal Security 32

3.2 The Effect of Toxic Culture of Masculinity on Recruitment and

 Exploitation of CAAFAG 38

CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION..... 44

4.1 Conclusion 44

4.2 Recommendation..... 45

BIBLIOGRAPHY 47

ATTACHMENTS 51

LIST OF PICTURES

Picture 3.1
Brothers Michael Kena Kuida, 17, and Donnat Basombeshayil,14.....	33
Picture 3.2
Former Kamuina Nsapu soldier stood at the spot where the campfire was lit	35

LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS

DRC	Democratic Republic of Congo
CAAFAG	Children Associated in Armed Groups and Armed Forces
MONUSCO	Mission de l'Organisation des Nations Unies pour la stabilisation en République démocratique du Congo
UNICEF	United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund
FDLR FOCA	Forces démocratiques de libération du Rwanda Forces Combattantes Abacunguzi
UNDP	United Nations Development Program
AFDL	Alliance des Forces Démocratiques por la Liberation du Congo-Zaire
FARDC	Forces armées de la république démocratique du Congo
PNC	Police nationale congolaise

LIST OF ATTACHMENTS

Attachment 1
Transcript of interview with Michel Chikwanine, former CAAFAG in the DR Congo	51
Attachment 2
Documentation of interview with Michel Chikwanine, former CAAFAG in the DR Congo	66